

McDowell Rice Welcomes Attorney Vashia Dadiotis

McDowell Rice Smith & Buchanan is excited to welcome Vashia Dadiotis to our Domestic Relations and Family Law team. Vashia is passionate about helping individuals and families navigate life's most challenging transitions, from divorce and custody disputes to support issues and complex property division. She understands that these situations can be deeply personal and stressful, and she works closely with her clients to find practical, creative solutions that protect their families and their futures. When litigation becomes necessary, Vashia is a strong advocate in the courtroom, standing by her clients every step of the way.

Vashia also represents clients in probate litigation, including contested guardianship and conservatorship matters, with a focus on resolving conflicts efficiently and with compassion. Before joining McDowell Rice, she practiced with both a national family law firm and local firms in Kansas, gaining valuable experience in high-conflict matters. She earned her J.D. from Washburn University School of Law, where she served as President of the Environmental Law Society and worked as an associate lobbyist before the Kansas Legislature.
