

Nothing beats an ice cream break on a hot summer day. ☐

Val reflected on how much the event has grown from just a couple years ago, when he was literally running ice cream bars through the hallways.

Bryan's sundae was a crowd favorite. The FIFA World Cup's Kansas City connection kept the soccer talk flowing. And Pete is getting ready for his 37th consecutive ride to Sturgis — a tradition that deserves its own trophy.

A big thank you to Sara for pulling it all together and keeping everyone's bowls full. Here's to doing it again next year. ☐
