

Rebecca Martin Published in Johnson County Bar Magazine

In the first of four articles to be appearing in the Johnson County Bar Association's monthly publication, The Bar Letter, Rebecca Martin and Mike Martin discuss the importance of well-being and share wellness advice to better balance a law practice. Click on the link to the first article appearing in the 2019 October publication of The Bar Letter: <http://digital.breese.pub.com/publication/?i=624193>.

Should you require assistance with tax matters, whether in tax law, taxpayer representation, business planning and transactions, estate planning and probate, or otherwise, please contact one of the Chairs of the Firm's Tax Law Group:

Ronald S. Bronstein

Rebecca Martin

In the second of four articles to appear in the Johnson County Bar Association's monthly publication, The Bar Letter Rebecca Martin and Mike Martin discuss the importance of Cultivating Resilience to better balance a law practice. Click on link to the second article appearing in the 2019 November publication of The Bar Letter: http://digital.breese.pub.com/publication/?i=634231&p=&pn=634231,%22issue\_id%22:634231,%22page%22:0}%22

Ms. Martin Co-Chairs the Tax Law practice group, and is a member of the Family Law & Divorce, and Wills, Trusts, & Estate Planning practice groups.

In the third of four articles appearing in the January 2020 Johnson County Bar Association's monthly publication, The Bar Letter, Rebecca Martin and Mike Martin discuss the importance of well-being and share wellness advice to better balance a law practice. Click on the following link to access the article, "Mindful Communication and Civility": http://digital.breese.pub.com/publication/?i=642847&ver=html5&p=17#642847,%22issue\_id%22:642847,%22publication\_id%22:2253730%22