

Tom Buchanan Participates in Annual Construction Industry Outlook Assembly

The annual Construction Industry Outlook Assembly hosted by Ingram's Magazine was held on May 12, 2016 . Tom Buchanan participated in the Assembly along with 40 other experts in the construction industry, including construction companies, contractor associations, builders, architects, engineers, electricians, and attorneys. Talking points included: state of the market, construction technology, supply and demand of workforce labor, competition and margins, and financing and bonding. The full Construction Industry Outlook Report will appear in Ingram's May publication.