Welcome, Mack Moeller!

We’re pleased to welcome Mack Moeller to McDowell Rice this summer as an intern.

Mack recently graduated from the University of Kansas and will begin his studies at KU Law School this fall. Wanting to stay busy and gain valuable professional experience before starting law school, he joined our team for the summer.

The legal profession runs in the family. Mack’s mother, Debbie Moeller, is a former McDowell Rice attorney, and his sister is a litigation attorney as well. While Mack hasn’t yet decided which area of law he would like to pursue, we’re excited to help introduce him to the profession and provide a firsthand look at the practice of law.

We’re happy to have Mack with us this summer and plan to keep him busy over the next couple of months as he prepares for the next chapter of his legal education. We look forward to being part of his journey and wish him continued success at KU Law.

Please join us in welcoming Mack to McDowell Rice!
