Biography

Spencer Cook is a newly-admitted attorney who represents clients in the areas of construction litigation and intellectual property. Mr. Cook received his B.S. in Chemical Engineering from the University of Kansas in 2019 and his J.D. from Washburn University School of Law in 2024. Prior to his legal career, Mr. Cook worked in engineering sales in the laboratory glassware industry, traveling around the southeastern United States to advise clients on their experimental and manufacturing processes. In doing so, he used his expertise in chemistry and engineering to provide clients with creative solutions for their laboratory and production needs, including benchtop glassware, chemical reactors, and other scientific apparatus.
