

Transportation Law

Overview

McDowell Rice's Transportation Law Group provides economical strategic planning and litigation representation for business clients and insurers in this highly-regulated field. Our lawyers have a wealth of experience advising a wide array of transportation and trucking clients. McDowell Rice has successfully represented transportation and trucking clients in all types of disputes and regulatory compliance issues, including in personal injury and wrongful death claims, insurance claims, as well financial and bankruptcy related matters. Our attorneys practice nationwide and have appeared in state and federal jurisdictions throughout the country.

Recent examples of our work include:

Representing a national trucking company in a wrongful death action in Missouri.
Representing an insurer in a bad faith action involving an underlying wrongful death trucking accident claim.
Representing a national trucking company in a Chapter 11 bankruptcy proceeding.
